Tournament
Champions

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

DESPERATION GAME... Both teams in the championship game are in need of a win in order to continue their season in the NCAA Tournament. The winner receives an automatic bid into the Central Regional.

TITLE EXPERIENCE... The Golden Bears bring a wealth of experience to today's game, having made the NSIC Tournament championship game in five of the last six seasons. The team has never missed an NCAA Tournament berth in each of the six years in which they have been eligible. They won the NSIC Tournament titles in 2005, 2007 and 2008.

ANOTHER GO-AROUND... The Huskies and Golden Bears have already met on the hardwood twice in the 2008-09 regular season, with the most recent game being two weeks ago. The teams split decisions with commanding wins on their home courts.

A RIVALRY BUILDS... This is how rivalries are born, in the postseason with everything on the line. There may be some bad blood remaining between the teams from their last postseason battles in the 2005 and 2006 regionals. Riding high from a monumental win over North Dakota in the 2005 semifinals, Concordia was bounced in the championship game by the Huskies, 81-70. The following year, St. Cloud State finished Concordia's season in the regional semifinals before going on to the NCAA Division II Final Four.

SENIORS PAVE THE WAY... Both the Golden Bears and the Huskies are led by seniors who will try to propel their team into the NCAA Tournament. Candace Olstad is averaging 13.5 points and 6.3 rebounds per game for Concordia. She has a 49% field goal average and is coming off of a double-double performance against Augustana. Katie Tacheny is both the emotional and statistical leader for the Huskies. She leads the NSIC with 16.9 ppg and is second in the conference with 80 steals this season.

MILESTONES FOR FESSLER ... Last night's win over Augustana marked Concordia head Coach Paul Fessler's 300th career win. In his ninth season with the Golden Bears, Fessler currently has 199 wins.
