Danny Richard, University of Nebraska at Kearney Lead
2009 Football Gazette All-Super Three Region Team

WINONA, MN -- Junior, defensive end, Danny Richard from NCAA Division II national championship runnerup Grand Valley State University and the University of Nebraska at Kearney head the list of selectees to the 2009 All-Super Region Three Team chosen by the Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

This marks the eighth year Football Gazette has selected Division II all-region teams. The national publication, an authority on small college football, has selected Division II All-America teams since 1998.

The first-team and second-team All-Region selections advance to a national ballot from which the 2009 Division II Football Gazette All-America team will be named.

Richard, who helped Grand Valley State reach the national championship game against Northwest Missouri State University, was the only player of the 19 repeat selections, who was named to the First Team for a second straight year.

Nebraska-Kearney advanced to the second round of the Division II playoffs and placed eight players on the three All-Super Region teams. Grand Valley State had seven players selected, while Minnesota State University Mankato, another team to advance to playoff action, and Chadron State University each received five selections to the three squads.

A total of 19 players were repeat selections, while the final totals showed that 81 players selected from 25 teams earned some form of Football Gazette All-Super Region Three honor.
